Saturday, 28 August - Bellingrath Gardens & Home Tour: 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Board your coach for a visit to one of America's most beautiful gardens and Homes. Built by Mobile's own Coca-Cola magnate, Walter Bellingrath, what started off as rustic river getaway, has grown into a National Treasure! Under the direction of his wife, Bessie, this once two cabin river retreat, has been transformed in to an amazing 65-acre estate of manicured gardens and a beautiful home designed by a regional favorite architect, George Rogers. The home features antique furnishings collected from all over the world during their travels. Mrs. Bellingrath also accumulated the world's largest private collection of Boehm porcelains. These delicate and detailed figures are on display throughout the house and a special gallery on the property. This is one of Alabama's "Must See" for visitors!! Lunch will be served in the Garden's Restaurant.

Cost: $65.00 per person with a 35-person minimum. Price Includes: Transportation, Admissions, Guide, Lunch at The Garden's Restaurant.
